

Lunch & Learn

Tuesday, April 21st

Noon - 1:30 p.m.

The Whitehall House
(behind John F. Slater Funeral Home)
4201 Brownsville Road, Brentwood

Vietnam, Then and Now

Todd DePastino talks about the distinct history of Vietnam based on what he's learning from his trips there with Vietnam veterans. Hear how Confucianism determines traffic patterns, why Vietnamese people always ask how old you are, why many young Vietnamese thanked us for the "American War," and what it was like for our veterans to meet their former battlefield enemies.

Lunch is $15. Veterans' lunches are complimentary.

Please register by calling 412-881-9022
or email CommunityService@JohnFSlater.com

More about Todd DePastino

Todd is the founding director of the Veterans Breakfast Club. Todd's interest in veterans' stories first grew out of his work as a historian. Todd is author and editor of seven books, including the award-winning Bill Mauldin: A Life Up Front (W.W. Norton), a biography of the famed WWII cartoonist. He has a Ph.D. in American History from Yale University and has taught at Penn State Beaver and Waynesburg University, where he received the Lucas-Hathaway Award for Teaching Excellence.